Mrs. Belle Carter Dies At Nephew's Residence

Mrs. Belle Carter, 86, a widely-known resident of Ewing, died Tuesday night at 11:30 o'clock at the residence of her nephew, Oral Johnson, south of Brownstown, following an illness of several years, the last week of which her condition was regarded as serious.

Mrs. Carter, who was esteemed for her gracious and hospitable manner, was born August 18, 1870 in Washington county, the daughter of the late William and Typhenis Johnson. She resided in Rockford, Ill., for several years but returned to Jackson county and was married March 12, 1934 at Brownstown to Darl F. Carter, who survives. She formerly was a member of Mt. Eden Christian Church in Washington county but attended the Methodist Church at Brownstown since taking up her residence in the community and was active in the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Surviving also are five step-children, Mrs. Ruby Fisher, Salem; Mrs. Myrtle Garrett, Indianapolis; Mrs. Flora Belle Quimby, South Bend; Harley Carter, Michigan City; Hovis D. Carter, Brownstown, several nieces and nephews, several step-grandchildren and one step-great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Brownstown Methodist Church with the Rev. Wayland E. Siders, pastor, officiating. Burial in Fairview cemetery.

Friends may call after 10 o'clock Thursday morning at the Winklepleck Funeral Home, Brownstown.
