Last Rites Read For Darl F. Carter Friday

Funeral services were conducted from the Winklepleck Funeral Home Friday afternoon at one o'clock for Darl F. Carter, who passed away at the Roselawn Nursing Home, Seymour, Wednesday, October 4, after an illness of one year.

In charge of the last rites was E. Lacy Satterfield, pastor of the Brownstown Christian Church, of which the deceased was a member. Burial was in Farview cemetery.

The son of George D. and Susan Cunningham Carter, he was born in Jackson county June 18, 1872. He was married in 1899 to Mary C. George, who died in 1931. He was married in 1934 to Belle Johnson, who also is deceased.

Survivors include three daughters: Mrs. Ruby Fisher, Salem; Mrs. Dorothy Jarrett, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Flora Belle Quimby, South Bend; two sons, Hovis Carter, Brownstown, and Harley Carter, who is a guard in the state prison at Michigan City. A sister, Mrs. Maggie Robbins, of Sarasota, Florida, also survives, as do several grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mr. Carter was a carpenter by trade. He was for several years a deacon of the local Christian Church and also served as clerk of the official board.
