James Cochram, 65, Dies at Medora Home

James Cochram, 65, died this morning at 2:10 a.m. at his home on Medora R1. He had been ill for about 10 months.

He was the owner of a roadside variety store at the Medora Junction in western Jackson County.

Born February 29, 1896, in Brownstown, he was the son of the late Robert Lee and Sarah Burgin Cochram. He spent most of his life in Jackson County.

On August 31, 1912, he was married in Brownstown to the former Esther Bell, who survives.

He was a member of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Those who have known and respected Mr. Cochram during his many years here in Jackson County will regret to learn of his death.

Survivors in addition to the widow are six children, Robert Cochram and Mrs. Clyde Johnson, both of Edinburg. Mrs. Paul Johnson of Franklin. Mrs. Harry Crady of Indianapolis. Mrs. Paul Bridgewater, of Seymour, and Leonard Cochram of Bedford; two brothers, Orville and Isaac Cochram, both of Brownstown; four sisters, Mrs. Henry Allman of Edinburg, Mrs. Durbin Franklin and Mrs. John W. Perry, both of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Harry Maples of Brownstown.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 2 p.m. from the Winklepleck Funeral Home in Brownstown with the Rev. Robert Eddinger of the Bedford Jehovah's Witnesses, officiating. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Winklepleck Funeral Home after 2 p.m. Wednesday.
