Walter Lee Cockerham

Oct. 7, 1925 – April 7, 2008

Walter Lee Cockerham, 82, of Brownstown and formerly of Freetown, passed away at 10:42 a.m. Monday, April 7, 2008, at Schneck Medical Center, Seymour.

Mr. Cockerham was a World War II Marine veteran and had worked most of his life as a self-employed auto parts man, retiring in 1987. He enjoyed auto races and bowling and also enjoyed watching his grandchildren participate in sports for the Brownstown Central school system.

Born Oct. 7, 1925, in Jackson County, he was a son of Orville and Ellen Stafford Cockerham. On Sept. 10, 1949, in Jackson County, he married Edna M. Lewis, who preceded him in death Feb. 7, 2007.

Survivors include two sons, Tony (Shari) Cockerham, Seymour, and Brad Cockerham, Freetown; a sister, Wanda (Russell) Bell, Seymour; and two grandchildren, Cameron and Mallory Cockerham.

He was preceded in death by a brother, J.C. Cockerham.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Thursday at Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home, Brownstown. Burial with military graveside rites will take place at Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. Wednesday and from noon until time of service Thursday at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, the family would prefer donations to the Hospice Fund through Schneck Medical Center Foundation.
