Mrs. L. Collins, Dies--Funeral Set Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Louisa Adeline Collins, 89, Columbus, will be conducted from the Spurgeon Funeral Home, Brownstown, at 2 p. m. Wednesday with the Rev. Ernest Anderson, pastor of the Brownstown Baptist Church, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery there.

Friends may call at any time at the Spurgeon Funeral Home, Brownstown.

A resident of Jackson County for 30 years, Mrs. Collins was the daughter of the late Jocyphus and Ella Ball Hensley and was born April 20, 1878, in Harlan, Ky. She was married in 1892 to Hiram Fee, who passed away, and to Abraham L. Collins in 1912, who also is deceased.

Mrs. Collins had been staying with her daughter at 1442 Sycamore in Columbus for the past few years and was just recently placed in the care of the Columbus Convalescent Home where she died after a week's illness.

She is survived by six sons, Lawrence and Granvil Fee, both of Medora R1, Findley Fee, Orange, Garrett Fee, Vallonia R1, Roy L. Collins, Hamilton, Ohio, and Charles L. Collins, Brownstown; four daughters, Mrs. Artie Farmer, Brownstown, Mrs. Ethel Bennett, Columbus, Mrs. Naomi Cox, Westport, and Mrs. Izetta Fox, Columbus; a brother, Byrd Hensley, Virginia; and three sisters, Mrs. Fanny Creech and Mrs. Dora Hensley, of Kentucky, and Mrs. Lilly Jones, Columbus; 25 grandchildren, 40 great-grandchildren and 11 great-great-grandchildren.

One son preceded her in death.
