Thomas Combs

Thomas L. Combs, 43, of Portage, Mich., died Friday, Sept. 24, in a Kalamazoo hospital.

Funeral services were held Sept. 27 at the First Presbyterian Church of Kalamazoo, with the Rev. David W. McShane officiating. Burial was at the Mountain Home Cemetery in Kalamazoo.

Mr. Combs was born in Brownstown on Dec. 11, 1932. He was the son of the late Lloyd Combs and Mrs. Lester Great-house, who survives. He was married to the former Patricia C. Cunningham.

Survivors, in addition to the widow and mother include two sons, John T. and William Reid Combs; two daughters, Sarah Elizabeth and Mary Catherine Combs; and two stepdaughters, Ann and Jean Decker.

Mr. Combs was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Kalamazoo, the Kalamazoo Country Club, and the American, Michigan, and Kalamazoo Bar Associations.

He received a B.S. degree from Purdue University in 1954, an M.S. in industrial management from Purdue in 1957, and a J.D. degree from the University of Denver in 1962.

A Korean War veteran of the U.S. Army, Mr. Combs was a senior partner in the law firm of Combs, Huff, and Carey.

Memorial contributions can be made to the American Cancer Society.
