

George H. Conner

Occupant Name: George H. Conner

Location: Section W, Lot 6

Date of Birth: 10/22/1879

Date of Death: 7/9/1944

Date of Burial: 7/11/1944

Veteran: No

Lot Owner: Ethel Conner

Multiple Occupants: No

Comment:

Geo. H. Conner, 64, Dies Sunday

Funeral Services Held Tuesday Afternoon—Had Been In Business In Brownstown 33 Years As Jeweler—Was Former Telegraph Operator For Pennsylvania Railroad At Seymour.

George H. Conner, age 64 years, a well known and prominent business man, passed away at his home in Brownstown Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. He had been ill for about two months, but the immediate cause of his death was a cerebral hemorrhage.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with the Rev. John U. Phelps, pastor of the Christian church, in charge. Burial in Fairview cemetery.

Mr. Conner was a life long resident of Jackson county. He was the son of Andrew A. and Nancy Watson Conner, both deceased, and was born at Rockford October 22, 1879. He attended the Shields high school and for several years he was employed as a telegraph operator for the Pennsylvania railroad in Seymour and at other stations in southern Indiana. Later he moved to Brownstown with his parents, where for thirty-three years he was engaged in the jewelry business and with close attention to his work, met with success.

On August 18, 1912, he was married in Brownstown to Miss Ethel Ball, who survives. He was a member of Washington Lodge, No. 13, Free and Accepted Masons of Brownstown. He was well known over the county and leaves a large circle of friends to mourn his death.

Survivors besides the widow are three sons, Dr. Donald W. Conner, of Terre Haute, Dr. Merle Conner, of Chicago, and George H. Conner Jr., at home. One sister, Mrs. O. B. Burrell, of Seymour, and two grandchildren also survive.