BURIAL SERVICES FOR FRANCIS COOK HELD

Last Rites for Native of Brownstown Conducted At Fairview Cemetery.

Burial services for Francis Cook, age twenty-five, a native of Brownstown, were conducted Thursday afternoon at Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown. Funeral services were conducted Thursday morning from the J. C. Wilson Funeral Home in Indianapolis.

Mr. Cook, who had been employed at the G. & J. Tire Company, Indianapolis, died Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock at the Sunnyside Sanitarium, Indianapolis. Death followed an illness of fourteen months' duration with tuberculosis.

Mr. Cook was the son of the late Tom and Pearl Mitchell Cook and had been residing with his step-mother in Indianapolis.

He is survived by the step-mother, Mrs. Nellie Cook; two sisters, Mrs. Louise Gilmore and Miss Mary Cook, and two brothers, Fred Cook and Kelsa Cook, all of Indianapolis.
