Comment:

Injuries sustained in a two-car accident Wednesday afternoon near Waynesville, N. C., in which his three-month-old son was killed instantly and his wife was seriously injured, claimed the life of Rudy Patrick Corrington, 19, of Seymour-Johnson Air Force Base, Goldsboro, N. C., formerly of Brownstown, Thursday night.

Airman Corrington, who was serving as an aircraft mechanic in the United States Air Force, died in the Haywood County Hospital in Waynesville, in western North Carolina.

Condition of his wife, the former Miss Eliza Ann Warner, of Brownstown, is reported slightly improved at the hospital, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Warner, of Brownstown, are with her. Airman Corrington's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy G. Corrington, of Brownstown, who went to Waynesville Wednesday night upon being notified of the accident, are en route home today.

Double funeral services for the baby, Rudy Patrick Corrington, who was born Sept. 24 of this year, and his father are planned, but arrangements have not been completed, pending arrival of the late airman's parents. Zabel
