Mrs. Margaret Cross Dies—Funeral Tuesday

Mrs. Margaret E. Cross, 79, a well known resident of Jackson county virtually all her life, and widow of the late James B. Cross, died Saturday afternoon in Washington, D. C., where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Faye Davis. Death followed a week's illness.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the Brownstown Christian Church with the Rev. Gene Dulin, pastor in charge. Burial is in Fairview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Combs, in Brownstown, at any time.

Mrs. Cross was born October 2, 1873, in Brown county, the daughter of the late Archibol and Rebecca Schults McKinney. She was married to James B. Cross, who died November 2, 1949. She was a member of the Ratcliff Grove Christian Church and was active in church affairs throughout the county for many years and was widely known, well liked and highly respected.

She is survived by three sons: Clifford Cross, of Roanoke, Va.; James C. Cross, of Ancon, Canal Zone; Clair Cross, of Brownstown and two daughters: Mrs. Faye Davis, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Maurine Combs, of Brownstown. A sister, Mrs. Susan Hedrick, of Storey, Brown county; 14 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren also survive.

A daughter, Mrs. Zella Spray and a son, Cecil Cross, preceded her in death.
