Mabel Delores Dailey

Mabel Delores Dailey, 89, Seymour, died at 2:08 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 27, at her home.

She attended First Marion Baptist Church. She had been a member of Prospect Chapter 452, Order of Eastern Star for 62 years. She was a homemaker.

She was born Sept. 8, 1908 in Jackson County to the late John R. and Elizabeth Buna Thompson

Browning. She lived in Indianapolis from 1927 to 1956, when she moved back to Jackson County. On May 7, 1927, in Seymour, she married Raymond Franklin Dailey, who preceded her in death in 1983.

She is survived by a sister, Nellie Conner, of Tampa, Fla.; six nieces, Patsie E. Hargraves of Greenwood, Emma Canada of Indianapolis, Phyllis Ping of Nashville, Lillian Breeding of Crothersville, Sharon Waggoner of Free-town, and Harriet Robbins of Greenfield; nine nephews, Robert Jolly and Lew Dailey, both of Indianapolis, Jim Dailey of Crothersville, Floyd Browning of Cortland, James Browning of Seymour, Dallas Connor of Tampa, Fla., John Conner of Pensacola, Fla., Clark Conner of Plant City, Fla., and Mark Conner of Tampa, Fla.

She was preceded in death by two sisters, Thelma Browning Jolly and Jennie Bell Browning Hunsucker, and eight brothers, Alvie Browning, Otto Browning, Ralph Browning, Charles Lee Browning, William Darvin Browning, Leonard J. Browning, Otis Kenneth Browning, and Frankie Orin Browning.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 1, at Voss Chapel, Seymour, with Rev. Bill Cordes and Rev. Jim Goble officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Eastern Star service will be held at 7 p.m. tonight, Tuesday, Sept. 30, at the funeral home.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 4-8 p.m. today and

Wednesday from 11 a.m. until time of the service.

Memorials may be made to Hospice of Jackson County or First Marion Baptist Church cemetery fund.
