Davis—Henry S. Davis, age 69, one of Brownstown's well-known citizens passed away at his home at this place Tuesday morning at 6:40 o'clock, following a long illness.

Deceased was born in Logan county, Ohio, July 8, 1864. He came to Brownstown in 1884 and was married here to Belle Owens May 25, 1886, who preceded him to the grave January 17, 1895. To their union were born three children, of whom one, Ora B. Davis, of Brownstown, survives. On April 25, 1897, he was married to Sarah A. Hogg, who survives. To this union eight children were born, all of whom survive, viz: Mrs. Blaze Robertson, of Franklin; Chauncey C. Davis, of Bloomington; George H. (Joe) Davis, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Howard Snyder, Mrs. Hugh Fountain Mrs. Roy Clark and Miss Roberta Davis and one step-daughter, Mrs. Frank Douglass, all of Brownstown. He also leaves one brother, Dr. George E. Davis, of West Mansfield, Ohio; one half-brother W. D. Cox, of Seymour, and a number of grandchildren.

Mr. Davis was a carpenter by occupation and for a number of years had charge of the Brownstown Planing Mill. Eleven years ago he suffered a stroke of paralysis and has suffered several more strokes since. He was confined to his bed about one week. He united with the Methodist church in early life and attended the services as long as his health permitted. He was a good husband and father and was devoted to his home. He was a member of the I. O. O. F., M. W. A. and Royal Neighbors lodges.

Funeral services in charge of the Rev. T. J. Hart, pastor of the Methodist church, will be conducted at the home Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
