Charles W. Denny, 20, Dies At Brownstown

Charles Wilburn Denny, age twenty, died this morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Denny, of Brownstown. He had been in failing health for the past several months.

Born October 21, 1924, in Freetown, the son of Ralph and Cecile Bender Denny, the youth went to Brownstown with his parents for residence when a small boy and spent practically his entire life there, where Mr. Denny is superintendent of schools. The parents survive.

He had considerable artistic talent and painted many pictures in oil and water color. An omnivorous reader, he specialized in history, biography and the opera, and passed on to others the information he gained from his reading. His sunny disposition and quiet, studious nature made him a wide circle of friends who mourn his death. He was a faithful member of the Brownstown Methodist Church.

Besides the parents, he is survived by three sisters: Mrs. June Cox, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Mary Jane Hand, of LaPorte and Jean Denny, at home. Also surviving are his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bender, who live at Wolf Lake and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Rinda Denny, of Freetown.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Brownstown Methodist Church with the Rev. Frank M. Templin, pastor, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, at Brownstown.

Friends may call at the home in Brownstown after 7 o'clock tonight.
