She was born on August 29, 1924 in Tulia, Texas to the late Ransom Huntley Lane and Margaret Ferguson Morgan. She married Morris W. Durham on December 24, 1944 in Florence, South Carolina and he died on August 17, 2003.

Survivors include 3 sons, Samuel (Nancy) Durham of Osgood, Donald (Diana Kaye) Durham of Vallonia, and Glenn (Jill) Durham of Vallonia; grandchildren, Tiffany (Nate) Cross, Clinton (Lauren) Durham, Jaclyn (Kyle) Williams, Monica (Eric) Adams, Samuel Durham, Jaylyn Durham, and Chelsea Durham; 5 great granddaughters, Avanelle Cross, Parker Durham, Amelia Williams, Josephine Cross, and Lane Adams.

She is preceded in death by her parents, husband, two sisters, and one brother.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday, December 24, 2014 at 11 a.m. at the Johnson Funeral Home, Vallonia. Friends may call from 9 a.m. until service time on Wednesday.

Burial will take place at the Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown.

Memorial contributions may be given to Joplin, Missouri Area Catholic Schools.

Avanelle enjoyed genealogy, swimming, reading, and the company of her pets. Family, friends and all who knew her will remember her outgoing and joyful personality. She had an amazing ability to connect with anyone; not knowing a stranger and her many stories will live on in the hearts of her family and everyone she touched.
