Roy England, Retired C'ville Carpenter, Dies—Rites Friday

Roy England, 78, well-known retired Crothersville carpenter, died Tuesday night in Methodist Hospital, Louisville. In failing health for five years, he had been seriously ill for three years.

Funeral rites will be at 2:00 o'clock Friday afternoon from the Evangelical and Reformed Church, Crothersville, in charge of the pastor, the Rev. Charles H. Schmitt.

The body will lie in state at the church from noon Friday until the hour of the service.

Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown.

Mr. England was born in Jackson county, May 31, 1882, a son of the late Timothy and Priscilla Chappel England. He was married October 9, 1927, in Crothersville, to Gladys Hall, who survives.

Also surviving are a son, Robert England, of Crothersville, two grandsons, a brother, Elmer England, of Casper, Wyoming, and two sisters, Mrs. May Fitzsimmons, of Scottsburg, and Mrs. Angie Bay, of Columbus.

Mr. England was a member of the Crothersville Baptist Church and Masonic Lodge.

Friends may call at the Burkholder Funeral Home in Seymour after 7:00 o'clock tonight until noon Friday.
