Services Set For Harry Everroad, Retired Druggist

Harry C. Everroad, retired local druggist, died at 1:45 o'clock Monday afternoon. He had been in failing health for several years and retired about two years ago.

Funeral services are to be conducted in the Vandivier mortuary Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Dr. Golden A. Smith, pastor of the Grace Methodist church will be in charge of the services and burial will be in the cemetery at Brownstown.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 o'clock Tuesday evening and Wednesday until time for the services. They are invited to attend the rites.

The son of William and Jennie Everroad, he was born near Hope, July 5, 1878.

Moves to City

Forty four years ago Mr. Everroad came to Franklin from Muncie and became associated with the old McCullough Drug firm. Later he was associated with the old Means Drug Company, the Woods Drug store and during the past few years was with the Franklin Pharmacy.

Mr. Everroad was a member of the Grace Methodist church and the Masonic lodge.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Cecile Guinnup Everroad, a daughter, Mrs. Harry Lucas, of Brownstown; two grandchildren, Edith Ann and David Lucas, of Brownstown; and a brother, Clarence Everroad, of Indianapolis.
