Hiram Jones Fee, 75, Succumbs at Medora

Hiram Jones Fee, 75, a native of Harlan county, Ky., who had resided in this county for the last three years, died Saturday morning at the home of a son, Lawrence Fee, one-fourth of a mile north of the Medora-U. S. Road 50 junction, after a brief illness of three days' duration.

Mr. Fee, who for 30 years was an ordained Christian minister, was a member of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics and had made many friends here who join with other friends in Kentucky and relatives in mourning his death. He was a member of the Christian Church in Harlan county.

The son of Hiram J. and Rebecca Jones Fee, Mr. Fee was born February 16, 1875. His parents preceded him in death. In 1893 he was married in Harlan county to Louise Hensley.

Survivors include 10 children, Lawrence Fee and Mrs. Arthur Farmer, both of Medora; Granville Fee, of Brownsville; Finley Fee, of Glenwood; Garrott Fee, of Marlond, Paul Fee, of Connersville; Lee Fee, of Cincinnati, O.; Hiram J. Fee, of Maryellen, Ky.; Mrs. Verna McBee, of Los Angeles, Calif.; and Mrs. Ethel Bennett, of Columbus.

Twenty-three grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning (CST) from Mt. Zion Methodist Church, with Dr. Fisher, pastor, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Lawrence Fee home at any time.
