Lawrence J. Fee Dies Suddenly At County Hospital

Lawrence J. Fee, well-known retired Carr township farmer and father of County Assessor Garrett Fee, died suddenly at the Jackson County Schneck Memorial Hospital about 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

He had been admitted there for medical treatment only the previous day.

Mr. Fee also was the father of Mrs. Ruby Fosbrink, of Brownstown; Mrs. Hazel Curry, R1, Medora; Frank Fee, Medora; Mrs. Frank Wolka, of Vallonia and Mrs. Troy Pardieck, of Miamisburg, Ohio.

He had lived in Jackson County since 1928 and, in 1921 was married, in Harlan, Kentucky, to Miss Lizzie Belle Davidson. Mrs. Fee died on January 20, 1969.

Funeral rites will be at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Johnson Funeral Home, Vallonia, in charge of the Rev. Harold Barnett, pastor of the North Vernon Christian Church and former pastor of Wray's Christian Church.

Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, in Brownstown.
