Edward Flick

Edward H. Flick, 81, Lutheran Community Home, Seymour, formerly of 333 Highlawn Ave., Seymour, died at 6:25 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 21, at the nursing home. He had been in failing health one year.

He was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Seymour. He retired from the Greassle-Mercer Co., Seymour, in 1972. He was a World War II Army veteran.

He was born Nov. 1, 1908 in Dudleytown to the late William R. and Elizabeth VanDewalle Flick. He was a lifelong resident of Jackson County.

Survivors include a sister, Anna Eglen, Seymour; three nieces, Mrs. Donald (Norma) Crane; Janet Sue Nichols; and Connie Dannettelle, all of Seymour; and several nieces and nephews who reside out of state. He was preceded in death by two brothers.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday, Dec. 27, at Voss Chapel, Seymour, with the Rev. Ralph Blumenberg officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the donor's choice.
