Chas. W. Ford, Aged 84, Dies At St. Louis

Was Native Of Brownstown Where
He Taught School...Other
Deaths Past Week.

Chas. W. Ford, of St. Louis, a native of Brownstown, died at St. Louis Tuesday evening, aged 84 years.

The remains will be brought here Friday afternoon on the B. & O. National Limited and taken to Fairview cemetery, where brief services will be held, after which the remains will be interred by the side of his wife.

That deceased lived longer than he expected is indicated by a marker he had placed on his cemetery lot some years ago, giving the year of his birth. The figures for the year of his death are 192— indicating that he expected to die before 1930.

On December 24, 1874, he was married to Mary C. Stryker, who died June 23, 1913. In the early 80's Mr. Ford taught in the Brownstown schools. He moved to St. Louis fifty years ago, where for many years he held a clerkship in a Baltimore and Ohio railroad office.
