Fordice—David Fordice, aged 53 years, died at the home of his brother, Richard Fordice, south of Brownstown, Thursday night, May 31, following a short illness of the flu.

He was born in Washington county October 31, 1874, and was the son of John and Harriette Fordice, both deceased. Since the death of his mother, he has made his home with his brother and sisters.

Dave, as he was familiarly known, was unfortunately afflicted from birth, but in spite of his physical and mental handicap he was honest and trustworthy, and had the respect and sympathy of the entire community. He was a member of the Brownstown Methodist church and a faithful attendant at Sunday school.

Besides the brother, at whose home he died, he leaves one brother, Geo. Fordice, of Bedford, and five sisters, Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. Will McCrary, of Brownstown; Mrs. Elijah Miller, of Vallonia; Mrs. William Bohall of Columbus; Mrs. George Wilkerson, of Athens, Illinois; and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Leo S. Lovell at the Methodist church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
