Edith Forgey

Mrs. James (Edith) Forgey, 77, Brownstown Rt. 1, died recently at the Jackson Park Convalescent Center. She had been in failing health for 3 years.

She had spent her entire life in the Pleasant Grove community and was a member of the Surprise United Methodist Church where she was active in helping, leading, teaching and in music and was a member of the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Mrs. Forgey attended school in Brownstown and college at the old Moore's Hill College. She was a licensed teacher in the public schools.

Born July 21, 1895, in Hayden, she was the daughter of the late William A. and Lucy Whitcomb McNiece.

On Dec. 28, 1920, in Cortland, she married James E. Forgey, who survives.

In addition to the husband, she is survived by 3 sons: Harry Forgey, Jackson, Mich.; Floyd Forgey, Indianapolis; Herschel Forgey, Brownstown; and 6 grandchildren.

One brother and one sister preceded her in death.

Services were held from Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home, with the Rev. Dallas Collier, pastor of the Hayden United Methodist Church, and the Rev. Clarence Killion, pastor of the Freetown charge of the United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial in Fairview Cemetery.
