James Fosbrink

James Albert Fosbrink, 62, of Houston, Tex., a former Seymour resident, died Tuesday, May 6, in Houston after an eight-month illness.

An engineering technician since 1967 at Johnson Space Center, Fosbrink was born in Jackson County Aug. 9, 1917 to the late Andrew and Carrie Persinger Fosbrink.

Fosbrink was a former employee of Cummins Engine Company, Columbus. He was a member of Central Christian Church, Seymour.

He was married Aug. 9, 1948 to Mary Lou Moore of Mitchell, who survives.

Other survivors include a son, Stephen, and a sister-in-law, Betty Grissom, both of Houston; and three brothers, Noel of Seymour and Roy and Rodney, both of Brownstown.

Services were scheduled at 2 p.m. today, Saturday, May 10, at Spurgeon Funeral Home, Brownstown, with Rev. Elvin Gray, pastor of Brownstown Christian Church, officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown, following cremation in Houston.

He was preceded in death by an infant son and two brothers.
