Funeral services for Henry Fountain, 69, Freetown Rt. 2, were conducted at 1 p.m. Wednesday from the Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home in Brownstown with the Rev. Robert Riggs, pastor of the Brownstown Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

Mr. Fountain died at 4 a.m. Sunday, July 4, at the Bedford Medical Center. He had been in failing health for nine months.

A prominent county farmer, Mr. Fountain was a member of the South Central Polled Hereford Association, the American Polled Hereford Association and the Jackson County Fair Board. He had worked as a fireman on the B & O Railroad between Washington, Ind., Cincinnati, Ohio, and Louisville, Ky., for 16 years. He was a member of the Ratcliff Grove Christian Church.

Born March 4, 1907, in Jackson County, Mr. Fountain was the son of the late Walter and Josephine Applewhite Fountain. On Oct. 19, 1929, in Nashville, he married Violet Parker, who survives.

Other survivors include one son, Jack Fountain, Freetown Rt. 2; a brother, Dr. Thomas Fountain, of Medora; and two grandchildren, Andy and Julie Fountain, Freetown Rt. 2.
