Grady H. Freeman Dies At Hospital—Father Of Mrs. Carl Zabel

Funeral rites were held Monday afternoon from the Zabel Funeral Home, followed by burial in Fairview Cemetery here, for Grady H. Freeman, of Seymour, father of Mrs. Carl Zabel, of Brownstown.

Ill for several months, Mr. Freeman died late Friday night at the Jackson county hospital where he had been a medical patient for several weeks.

A retired motorman on the old interurban line which ran between Indianapolis and Louisville, Mr. Freeman was born in Clark county December 23, 1890, a son of the late Ramey R. and Emma Dunlevy Freeman.

He was married at Memphis, Indiana, November 5, 1911, to Pearl Whitesides, who died in April of this year.

Surviving in addition to Mrs. Zabel are three other daughters, Mrs. Margie Wince, of Arthur, Illinois, Mrs. Mildred Moschini, St. Louis, Missouri, and Mrs. Emma Lee Watson, of Columbus. He also leaves 13 grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

He was a member of Seymour First Methodist Church, whose pastor, the Rev. Charles Walls, was in charge of the funeral rites.
