Obituary

Heller—Bruce Heller, age 71, died at the county hospital, Seymour, Friday night. Death was attributed to cancer. He had been in ill health since September and was bedfast a week.

He spent his entire life in Jackson county and was born near Brownstown to Phillip and Useba Crabb Heller, both deceased, on September 25, 1875. On November 14, 1900, he was married in Brownstown to Hettie Bland, who preceded him in death about five years ago. For 38 years Mr. Heller was employed in Bolles Hardware store in Erwing and was well known over the county. He went to Seymour February 26th to make his home with his sister, Mrs. William Tuell.

Besides Mrs. Tuell he is survived by another sister, Mrs. Ben Tiggs, of Cincinnati; a brother, Charles Heller, of Randolph, Kansas; a step-brother, Ben Sage, of Covington, Ky., and two step-sisters, Mrs. Julia Smith and Mrs. Anna Walker, both of Ironton, Ohio. A son, Maurice, age 15, died in 1918.

Funeral services were conducted at the Brownstown Christian church, of which he was a member, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of the pastor, the Rev. John U. Phelps. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
