Henderson—Mrs. Hettie Henderson, age 79 years, passed away at the Schneck Memorial hospital, Seymour, Saturday morning at 9:35 o'clock.

Mrs. Henderson had been ill with a complication of diseases for more than a year. For several months she was confined to her bed, but of late she had been able to be up and about the home part of the time. On Tuesday, April 5, she fell in the home and broke her hip, which was the immediate cause of her death.

She was a life-long resident of Jackson county and had spent the greater part of her life in Brownstown. She was born in Owen township March 30, 1858, the daughter of James and Martha Wells Owen. She was married to James Henderson March 17, 1880. Mr. Henderson served as postmaster at Brownstown. He was also superintendent of the county infirmary for several years and later engaged in the restaurant business. He died April 22, 1902. She was a good kind neighbor and was a member of the Presbyterian church.

She is survived by one brother, Cass Owen, of Brownstown, and a sister, Mrs. Laura Milligan of Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian church Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock in charge of the pastor, the Rev. Roy Brumbaugh. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
