Timothy Ray Henley rites Saturday

Timothy Ray Henley, 30, of Chicago and formerly of Seymour died at 3 p.m. Thursday in Chicago after an eight-month illness.

Mr. Henley was a member of Central Christian Church in Seymour. He was a general contractor for Bil-Mar Properties in Chicago.

Mr. Henley was born March 6, 1957, in Seymour to Thomas Ray Henley and Marcella Robinson Banister. Both survive in Seymour.

Others surviving are a stepmother, Virginia Henley; stepfather, Herbert Banister; a grandfather, Ray C. Henley; and a brother, Terry Henley, all of Seymour.

The Rev. Sam Davenport will conduct a memorial service at 3 p.m. Saturday at Voss Chapel in Seymour. Friends may call from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday at the mortuary.

Memorials may be made to the Howard Brown Memorial Clinic in Chicago.
