Comment:

Lester R. Hobbick, 30, Seymour R1, died at 7:40 a. m. Thursday at Methodist Hospital Indianapolis, as a result of injuries received in a traffic accident October 30.

Mr. Hobbick reportedly suffered a broken neck and other injuries in the early morning accident on U. S. 31 near the Hilltop Restaurant in Bartholomew County. A spare tire from a semi-tractor unit reportedly came loose and struck the front of Hobbick's van truck, which then flipped, end over end.

Hobbick was first taken to Bartholomew County Hospital and then transferred to Methodist.

A resident of Jackson County for the past five years, he was employed by Cummins Engine Company and operated an upholstery shop at his home. He had served with the Armed Forces.

Born Dec. 21, 1939, in northern Indiana, he was the son of Mrs. Gussie Fulford and the late Ralph Hobbick. On Aug. 23, 1966, in Nashville, Tenn., he married the former Janet Wheeler who survives. Also surviving are four children, Kevin, Deidra, Lana and Traesia; three brothers, Charles of San Francisco, Calif., Herman, of Alaska, and Markel, of Taylorsville.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p. m. Sunday from the Johnson Funeral Home, Vallonia, with the Rev. Mark Barnes, pastor of the Brownstown Nazarene Church, officiating. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call after 10 a. m. Saturday at the Johnson Funeral Home.
