Comment:

Patricia Ann "Pat" Pendleton-Hobbs, 72, Brownstown, passed away peacefully at her home surrounded by her family at 6:53 a.m. Friday, Jan. 24, 2014.

Patricia became a nurse in 1975 and worked at Whitesburg Hospital in Kentucky. She was a homemaker. She attended the Easyville Church of Jesus Christ. She was an active member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and a former board member of the Jackson County chapter of the American Red Cross. She was a lady of grace and elegance who loved her family beyond measure. She always welcomed anyone into her home and helped anyone she felt was in need. She always looked at life in a positive way and taught her family that tomorrow would be a better day. She enjoyed genealogy, auctions, gardening, fishing and spending time with her family.

Born Oct. 28, 1941, in Sassafraz, Ky., she was a daughter of Farris and Ethel (Sutphin) Pigman. On May 22, 1993, she married Earl T. Hobbs, who preceded her in death on April 24, 2007.

Survivors include three children, Krysti (Marc) Storey, Brian (Wendy) Pendleton and Brad (Andrea) Pendleton; three brothers, Bill Pigman and Virgil, Burl (Thelma) Pigman and Ferrel (Bonita) Pigman; nine grandchildren, Lane Pendleton, Macklin Pendleton, Jordyn Pendleton, Brian Michael Pendleton, Jennifer Howe, Samuel Short, Drew Storey, Lexi Striegel, and Andrew Striegel; and six great-grandchildren, Cooper Goss, Campbell Howe, Hailey Short, Jackson Short, Kinsley Storey and Dysen Storey.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; a brother, John Pigman; two sisters, Peggy Kreis and Betty Leedy; and an infant sister, Fern Pigman.

A funeral service will be conducted at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home, Brownstown, with Pastor Jean Pogue officiating and a prayer offered by Dr. Kenneth Bobb. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m. Tuesday and from 10 a.m. until time of service Wednesday at the funeral home. Memorials may be made to Schneck Foundation, Hospice Fund.
