Comment:

Ed Hollin, 84, Brownstown, passed away at 11:50 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 14, 2010, at Hoosier Christian Village, Brownstown. Mr. Hollin was a retired coal miner from Manchester, Ky. He was a member of First Pentecostal Church of Brownstown. He enjoyed building wind mills, working in flowers, but even more, enjoyed time spent with his family. He helped raise a niece, Carol Hollin Chambers, who survives in Merryville, Tenn.

Born March 19, 1926, in Manchester, Ky., he was the son of Robert and Mary Maxie Hollin. On Oct. 10, 1987, he married Lucy Wilson, and she survives.

Other survivors include stepchildren, Doug and Julie Lewis, Earl Climer, Marie Harris, Shirley Climer Weekly, Robert H. Wilson, Greg Wilson and Sue Wilson Gans; one sister, Edith McIntosh, Austin; one grandson, Terry Trowbridge, Bloomington; eight stepgrandchildren, Brian Climer, Doris Pearson, Scott Climer, Tonya Hornay, Tim and Tammy Trowbridge, Michael Wilson and Jared Gans; along with several nieces, nephews, cousins and great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by first wife, Cleo Lewis; stepsons, Roy and Carl Lewis and Steve Wilson; three sisters; and three brothers.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home, with Ron Cox officiating. Burial will follow at Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown. Visitation will be from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. today and from 10 a.m. until time of service Wednesday at the funeral home.
