Mrs. S. M. Hotchkiss Dies in Brownstown

Mrs. Myrtle Jane Hotchkiss, a life-long resident of Jackson county, died early Sunday morning at her home in Brownstown after an illness of three months. She was 66 years old.

Mrs. Hotchkiss, who was the wife of S. M. Hotchkiss, was active in Brownstown community activities since 1912 when she and Mr. Hotchkiss moved there from Driftwood township.

She was a member of the Brownstown Christian Church and of the Order of the Eastern Star.

A native of the Freetown vicinity, Mrs. Hotchkiss was born January 23, 1881, the daughter of Washington and Mary Wiley Lockman. She and Mr. Hotchkiss were married October 28, 1906, in Driftwood township.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Hotchkiss is survived by five daughters: Mary, Virginia and Myrtle Esther, all of Brownstown; Mrs. Ruth Jane Waskom, Seymour, and Lieutenant Grace Hotchkiss, Army Nurse Corps, Fort Dix, N. J.; by her sons, Hartley and F. M. Hotchkiss, Jr., both of Brownstown; and by her four sisters, Mrs. Grace Cross, of Brownstown; Mrs. Elsie Robison, Vallonia, Mrs. Josephine Phiele, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Rosa Summa, Anderson; and by four grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hotchkiss will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Brownstown Christian Church, the Rev. John U. Phelps, pastor, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Hotchkiss home at any time.
