Charles E. Hunsucker, Acme Merchant, Dies— Rites To Be Thursday

Charles E. Hunsucker, well-known merchant and filling station operator at Acme, died at his home, Cortland R1, at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. He had been ill for eight months.

Funeral rites will be held at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Winklepleck Funeral Home, in charge of the Rev. Earl Nossett, pastor of the Acme Evangelical United Brethren Church. Burial will be in Brownstown's Fairview Cemetery.

A native of Jackson county, Mr. Hunsucker was born August 10, 1916, an only child of the late Ora and Jennie Browning Hunsucker. On December 30, 1945, at Vallonia, he was married to Ermal Manuel, who survives.

Also surviving are four children, Phil, Beth Ann, Gordon and Janet Sue, all at home.

A World War II veteran, he served with the U. S. Army and spent three years on overseas assignment. He was a member of the Methodist Church at Bedford, and Washington Lodge No. 13, F. and A. M., Brownstown.

Masonic memorial services will be held at the Winklepleck Funeral Home at 8:00 o'clock this evening.
