Obituary

Martha Adaline Robertson, daughter of William and Elizabeth Robb-ship, August 13, 1853. Departed this ertson, was born in Hamilton town- life March 31, 1926, making her age at the time of her death 72 years, 7 months and 18 days.

She was married to William M. Isaacs September 7, 1873. To this union were born nine children, two having died in infancy, Edwin and Elmer. She leaves to mourn their loss her husband and seven children, namely: Mrs. Ethel Hays, of Sand- born; Charles, of Pullman, Wash.; Mrs. Grace Enochs, of Scottsburg; Mrs. Cora Borchering, of Moore, Montana; Mrs. Mabel Ritz and Wm., of this place, and Orville, of Spo- kane, Washington; also eighteen grandchildren; one brother, Samuel W. Robertson, of Pleasant Grove; four sisters, Mrs. Jennie Wayman and Mrs. Ella Welsh, of Brownstown; Mrs. Ida Laraway, of Newkirk, and Mrs. Celestus Baker of Guthrie Creek; two half-brothers, Will and Dempsey Robertson, besides a host of relatives and friends.

She was a faithful member of the Christian church here having joined in early life. She was always active in church work and never failed to attend church services if it was at all possible for her to do so. She was a member of the Eastern Star lodge at Brownstown. She was a good wife and mother and will not only be missed in the home, but by a large number of friends and relatives.

The funeral services, which were largely attended, were held at the Christian church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock under the auspices of the Eastern Star lodge, Elders Ora Cox, T. J. Due and J. M. Cross officiat- ing. Burial in Fairview cemetery at Brownstown.
