Clyde McCrary Dies At Hospital—Native Brownstown Township

Clyde McCrary, 71, a native of Brownstown township and a local resident until about six years ago, died about 11:00 o'clock Tuesday morning in the Jackson county hospital. He had been in failing health for about two years.

A carpenter by occupation, Mr. McCrary was born in Brownstown township, December 23, 1892, a son of the late Samuel and Evelyn Clark McCrary. He was married on November 16, 1919, at Indianapolis, to Lee Allen, who died on June 6, 1948.

Surviving are a son, Sherman McCrary, of Anderson, five grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Grace Jackson, of Lebanon.

Three brothers and three sisters are deceased.

Mr. McCrary was a member of the Brownstown Methodist Church and of the Modern Woodman of America.

Funeral rites will be at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Winklepleck Funeral Home, here, in charge of the Rev. Max Nicoson, pastor of the Brownstown Methodist Church. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Winklepleck Funeral Home at any time.
