John McCrary

John Irvin McCrary, 59, of 105 S. Ewing St. in Brownstown died at 8:20 p.m. Monday, Jan. 30, at the Veterans Hospital in Marion.

He had been under the hospital's care for 10 years, said his sister, Edith Gray of Brownstown.

Funeral will begin at 1 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 2, at the Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home in Brownstown with the Rev. Doug Nuss officiating. Burial with military rites will be at Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown.

Persons may call from 2 to 9 p.m. today, Wednesday, Feb. 1, and after 9 a.m. Thursday at the funeral home.

Mr. McCrary was born Feb. 12, 1924, in Jackson County to the late William and Ida May Fordice McCrary.

The World War II veteran attended the Brownstown Baptist Church and was a member of the Seymour Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1925 and the Brownstown American Legion. He had owned and operated a Sinclair service station in Brownstown and a Shell station in Seymour.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Roscoe (Carolyn) Bowman of Free-town Rt. 2 and Mrs. Michael (Brenda) Wessel of Seymour Rt. 1; a brother, Lawrence McCrary of Springfield, Mass.; and two other sisters, Mrs. Paul (Martha) Gainer of Brownstown and Mrs. Travis (Esther) Jamison of Vallonia.

Also surviving are six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The family requested that memorials be in the form of donations to the American Heart Assn. or to the Gideon Society.
