Rites Set Friday For Mrs. Arthur M. Rucker

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Jane Rucker, 35, 316 Kessler Boulevard, will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Friday from the Redeemer Lutheran Church with the Rev. Walter C. Loeber, pastor, officiating. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Burkholder Funeral Home until time for services.

Mrs. Rucker, wife of Arthur M. Rucker, died suddenly in Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis at 7:30 a. m. Wednesday. She had become ill at her home at 2:30 a. m. and was rushed to the Indianapolis hospital in a private ambulance. A post mortem examination was conducted, but cause of her death has not been determined.

Mrs. Rucker was born in Brownstown March 1, 1927, the daughter of James A. and the late Emma Browning McCrary. She lived in Jackson County all of her life, except a four-year period when she lived in Lafayette. She moved to Seymour 12 years ago. On February 17, 1946, she married Arthur M. Rucker, who survives.

She was a member of Seymour Chapter No. 134, Order of the Eastern Star.

Survivors, in addition to the husband and father, include two sons, Dennis Morton and Timothy Alan Rucker, both at home; four brothers, Thomas A. McCrary, of Jeffersonville, George McCrary, of Seymour, Earl G. Lahrman, of Crothersville, and Lloyd V. Lahrman, of Denver, Colo.; and two sisters, Mrs. Dennis Durkoop, and Mrs. John E. Fox, both of Seymour.
