Scott McElfresh Expires at Home

Scott McElfresh, age seventy-five, residing on a Brownstown rural route two miles northwest of the county seat, died at 5:15 o'clock this morning. Death followed an illness of four years' duration. His condition had been serious for the past three weeks.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon from the Pleasant Grove Methodist Church followed by burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Mr. McElfresh, a life-long resident of western Jackson county was born near Brownstown on February 26, 1867; the son of Basil and Mary Ackels McElfresh, both deceased. He was married in 1897 to Emma Bridgewater, who survives.

Mr. McElfresh was a farmer and was a member of the Pleasant Grove Methodist Church. He was well known throughout western Jackson county and was active in affairs there until his failing health limited his activity.

Besides the widow, he is survived by two sons, Ralph McElfresh, of Cincinnati; William McElfresh, of Brownstown, also surdaughter, Mrs. Joe Beatson, near Freetown. A brother, Edward McElfresh, of Brownstown, also survives.
