Services Set Tuesday For W. McElfresh

Funeral services for Walter Henry McElfresh, 57, of 615 South Main street, Brownstown, will be conducted 2 p. m. Tuesday from the Brownstown United Methodist Church with the Rev. Staten E. Lightfoot, pastor, and the Rev. Dewey Allman, pastor of Seymour Christ Temple, officiating. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown. Masonic graveside rites will be conducted.

Friends may call at Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home, Brownstown, at any time.

Mr. McElfresh died at 6:15 p. m. Saturday at Deaconess Hospital, Evansville, after an eight-week illness.

A lifelong resident of this county, he was an operating engineer in construction for a number of years.

He was married in 1938 to Virginia Schwein McElfresh at Brownstown. She survives.

Born Sept. 11, 1911 at Free-town, he was the son of the late Quiller and Attica Barr McElfresh.

He attended the United Methodist Church at Brownstown and was a member of Washington Lodge No. 13, Free and Accepted Masons, of Brownstown. He was a veteran of World War II.

He was preceded in death by a brother and a half-brother.

Besides his widow, he is survived by four sons, Roger McElfresh, Larry McElfresh, Ronnie McElfresh, all of Mt. Vernon, Ind. and Michael McElfresh, of Chicago, Ill; three brothers, Sherman McElfresh, of Brownstown, Bennie McElfresh, of Seymour, and Bob McElfresh, of Joliet; a sister, Mrs. Florence Goss, of Free-town; two half-brothers, Herb Engle, of Indianapolis, and George McElfresh, of Free-town, and seven grandchildren.
