Mrs. Rose N. McGee Is Called by Death

Mrs. Rose Nell Zaring McGee, age forty-five, a former Jackson county resident who had been living at Ruston, Louisiana, died late Monday night at the Bartholomew County Hospital at Columbus. She had been ill for three days and had been in the hospital for only one day.

Mrs. McGee was born on October 29, 1888, in Jackson county, the daughter of Dr. P. A. and Alsey Ingram Zaring. The mother survives. She was married on December 25, 1926, at Brownstown to John E. McGee, who is an instructor at a polytechnic institute at Ruston. They left this vicinity about fifteen years ago.

Mrs. McGee was a graduate of the Brownstown High School and of Indiana University, Bloomington. She received her Master of Arts degree from Columbia University, New York.

Many friends in this vicinity mourn her death.

Besides the mother and husband, she is survived by three brothers, Wendell Zaring, of Austin; Roswald Zaring, of Seymour, and Major Byron K. Zaring, of the U. S. Army at San Francisco, Calif., and a sister, Mrs. Harold Morford, of Columbus.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.
