

James A. McGill

Occupant Name: James A. McGill

Location: Section S, Lot 40

Date of Birth: 6/10/1922

Date of Death: 9/1/1979

Date of Burial: 9/3/1979

Veteran: Yes

Lot Owner: Joe Kindred

Multiple Occupants: No

Comment:

d. 9-1-1979
James McGill

James McGill, 57, of Brownstown Rt. 1, died at home Saturday, Sept. 1, at 7 a.m.

He was born June 10, 1922 in Commisky to the late Everett McGill Sr. and Thelma Wilkerson.

Mr. McGill was a member of the Brownstown Christian Church, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite Valley of Indianapolis, Jackson Lodge 146 F. & A.M., American Legion Post 89, and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1925.

Funeral services were held Monday, Sept. 3, at Zabel Funeral Home in Brownstown with the Rev. Elvin Gray officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery. Masonic services were held Sunday, Sept. 1, at 8 p.m. Graveside military services were also held.

He married Frances Kindred on June 14, 1951 in New Albany, and she survives.

Other survivors include five brothers, Everett McGill Jr. of Seymour, Roger McGill of Freetown, Donald McGill of Columbus, John T. McGill of Albuquerque, N.M. and Charles McGill of Rapid City, S.D.

A veteran of World War II, Mr. McGill was a barber.

He was preceded in death by his sister.