Comment:

McKain—Irvin McKain, son of Mrs. Clara McKain of Brownstown died at the Schneck hospital at Seymour Saturday night about 7 o'clock aged 7 years, 10 months and 27 days.

Irwin was taken sick while at school Tuesday of last week. His condition became alarming and he was taken to the hospital Friday night where he underwent an operation at 10 o'clock for a ruptured appendix.

He was an exceptionally bright child, possessing a pleasing and sunny disposition that won him the love of his teachers and schoolmates, and his thoughtfulness for others, and his polite manners, for one of his tender years, won the respect and admiration of many who commented upon these commendable traits of his character.

Besides his mother he leaves three sisters all at home. His father preceded him in death a few years ago.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. T. J. Anthony, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
