Irene McKain

April 17, 1936 - May 17, 2011

Irene McKain, 75, of Brownstown, entered into eternal life while surrounded by her loving husband, children, grandchildren and close friends at St. Vincent's Hospital, Indianapolis, Indiana on Tuesday, May 17, 2011.

She was Plan Commissioner of Jackson County Planning and Zoning. She was a member of the Brownstown First Baptist Church where she was active in the Leota Missionary Society. She was a member of the Hickory Hills Golf Club and had participated in various bowling leagues and card clubs. She was an avid sports fan of all Brownstown Central Sports, especially when her grandchildren were involved. She enjoyed spending time with her family and friends and she leaves a legacy of always helping others.

She was born on April 17, 1936 in Sneedville, TN. She was a daughter of the late Richard Samuel and Tennie (Collins) Seals. On April 12, 1957 she married Max J. McKain and he survives.

Other survivors include:

2 daughters: Sherry (Jeff) Settle of Vallonia and Debra McKain of Brownstown.

4 grandchildren: Lindsey (Gregg Goshorn) McKain, Kevin Settle, Kourtney Settle and Kyan McKain

3 brothers: R.C. (Bobbi) Seal, Mike (Joann) Seal, and Billy (Sue Taylor) Seals, all of Crothersville.

1 brother in-law: Pryce Colwell

She was preceded in death by 3 brothers (Taylor Seals, Delsie Seals, Tilmon Seals), 3 sisters (Ruth Hazelwood, Mabel George and Opal Colwell) and her parents.
