McKain—Mrs. Lucy McKain, of Brownstown township, age 54, died at the Schneck Memorial hospital, where she had undergone an operation, Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. She had been ill about four weeks with a complication of diseases.

Funeral services were conducted at the Brownstown Baptist church, of which she was a member, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. McKain was born in Jackson county November 19, 1885, to Lemuel and Clara Laudermilk Borders, both deceased, and spent her entire life in this county. On December 24, 1901, she was married at Brownstown to Oscar McKain, who survives.

Survivors besides the husband are an adopted daughter, Mary McKain, at home; a brother, William Borders, of Brownstown; two half-brothers, Lonnie and Frank Borders, both of Lawrence county, and a half-sister, Mrs. Pearl Akers, of Greencastle. A brother, Clarence Borders, died at his home near Brownstown six weeks ago.
