Ralph McKain

Ralph L. McKain, 69, Edinburgh, died at 12:50 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 11, at the Bartholomew County Hospital, Columbus.

An Army veteran of World War II, he owned and operated the Shelby Avenue market in Edinburgh for 25 years. He was a member of the Edinburgh Christian Church, the Independent Order of Oddfellows, in which he held various offices; the Edinburgh American Legion, and the Edinburgh Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Mr. McKain, who moved to Edinburgh in 1956, was born Feb. 25, 1917, in Jackson County to the late Lloyd and Mae Lutes McKain.

On Nov. 2, 1947, he married Eileen Reinbold, and she survives.

Other survivors include one son: Ralph William McKain, Columbus; two brothers: James McKain, Free-town, and Halford McKain, Columbus; one sister: Doris Weekley, Indianapolis, and one grandson.

He was preceded in death by one daughter, Sue Ann McKain.

Funeral will begin at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 13, at the Eskew-Eaton Funeral Home, Edinburgh. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

The Oddfellows will conduct a memorial service at 8 p.m. tonight, Wednesday, Nov. 12, at the funeral home.

Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. today at the funeral home.
