Richard McKain

Richard McKain, 74, a former Brownstown resident, died at 2:26 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 8, in Indianapolis where he had resided for the past several years. He had been ill since 1956.

Mr. McKain had been a fireman for the B&O Railroad for several years.

Funeral was Friday, Aug. 10, at Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home in Brownstown with burial at Fairview Cemetery.

Mr. McKain was a World War II veteran and a graduate of the Indiana Barber College. He had never married.

Surviving are four brothers, Roland and Dallas McKain, both of Crothersville, Jack and Max McKain, both of Brownstown; and two sisters, Shirley Robinette of Crothersville and Katherine Critchlow of Indianapolis.

Four brothers and one sister preceded him in death.

He attended the Christian Church.

Memorials may be made to the American Heart Assn.
