

Guy W. McNiece

Occupant Name: Guy W. McNiece

Location: Section W, Lot 1

Date of Birth: 5/26/1892

Date of Death: 1963

Date of Burial: 1963

Veteran: No

Lot Owner: W. J. McNiece

Multiple Occupants: No

Comment:

Guy W. McNiece Dies At Hospital— Rites To Be Thurs.

Guy W. McNiece, well-known resident of the Pleasant Grove community died about noon Tuesday at the Jackson county hospital. He had been admitted Wednesday of last week for medical treatment. Mr. McNiece had contacted the flu and complications developed. However it was thought he was much improved during the week end but suffered a relapse.

Mr. McNiece had been The Banner correspondent from the Pleasant Grove community for more than forty years. He took great pride in his work as a county reporter and made every effort to report the news of his area accurately and promptly and cooperated closely with The Banner staff. Through his reporting he made many contacts throughout a wide area.

Funeral rites will be held at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Winklepleck Funeral Home, in charge is the Rev. Dallas Collier, pastor of the Surprise Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. Stanley Palicki, Vallonia Methodist minister. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Funeral Home at any time.

Mr. McNiece was born on May 26, 1892, in the Pleasant Grove vicinity and had spent all of his life in this community where he was widely known and deeply respected. He was a son of the late William A. and Lucy Whitcomb McNiece.

He was married on November 11, 1915, at Cortland, to Nellie White, who survives.

Also surviving are five children: Gerald McNiece, Donald McNiece and Miss Florence McNiece, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Esther Rorig, of Vallonia, and Mrs. Ruth Pardieck of Seymour; four grandsons, a granddaughter, and two sisters, Mrs. Edith Forgey and Mrs. Jennie Jackson, both of Brownstown R. 1.

Mr. McNiece was a farmer and was an active layman of the Pleasant Grove Methodist Church. He was a talented vocalist and had sung for church events and various organizations throughout the county for many years.