Mrs. Ruth Murphy, 63, Dies at Philadelphia

Mrs. Ruth Murphy, age sixty-three, widow of the late Dr. Harry Murphy, Brownstown dentist, died Thursday afternoon at Sacred Heart Hospital, Philadelphia, Pa. Death was due to complications following an illness of several months duration. Mrs. Murphy had been in Pennsylvania with her daughter, Mrs. Helen Hommel, of Wynne Wood, a Philadelphia suburb.

Mrs. Murphy was born on July 17, 1886, in Brownstown township, the daughter of Jacob W. and Eunitia Bain Branaman, both of whom preceded her in death. On March 1, 1903, she was married to Dr. Harry Murphy, who died August 3, 1937.

A member of the Brownstown Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Murphy was also active in the Eastern Star Club and in the Daughters of the American Revolution. She was quite well-known in Brownstown through her church and civic work, and has made many friends throughout the county.

Survivors are a son, Harold Murphy, who is stationed at a U. S. Army camp in Delaware; a daughter, Mrs. Helen Hommel, of Wynne Wood, Pa.; two brothers, Allan Branaman, of Vincennes, and Harry Branaman, of Washington; one sister, Mrs. Blanche McOsker, of Brownstown; and one grandchild, Ruth Ann Hommel, of Wynne Wood, Pa.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home of Mrs. McOsker, in Brownstown, at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, with the Rev. Walter Zeanah, pastor of the Brownstown Presbyterian Church, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the McOsker home after 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.
