Thomas Ray Mullins

Aug. 9, 1949 – Dec. 29, 2007

Thomas Ray "Tom" Mullins, 58, of Columbus and formerly of Seymour, died at 8:40 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 29, 2007, at Columbus Regional Hospital.

Mr. Mullins had worked for various employers throughout his life, most recently with Greemann's Furniture Store in Seymour. He had also worked at Cummins Engine Co. and H.O. Canfield. He was a Protestant by faith and enjoyed hunting and fishing and spending time with his family and friends.

Born Aug. 9, 1949, in Leesville, he was the son of Sally Smith Eglen, who preceded him in death.

Survivors include one son, Thomas R. Mullins Jr., Greenfield; two half brothers, Benny (Virginia) Smith, Columbus, and Lanny (Gloria) Eglen, Provo, Utah; two half sisters, Kathy (Rick) Nowling, Seymour and Joanne (Jack) Fish, Freetown; and two grandchildren.

Doug Smith will conduct funeral services at 10 a.m. Thursday at Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home, in Brownstown. Burial will take place at Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown.

Friends may call from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday and from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.

Memorials may be given to Seymour American Legion.
