Kathryn Kamman Noblitt

Nov. 13, 1923 - Oct. 13, 2011

Kathryn Kamman Noblitt, 87, formerly of Brownstown, died at her home in Stamford, Conn., on Thursday, Oct. 13, 2011.

The youngest daughter of William H. and Elnora Deppert Kamman, she was born Nov. 13, 1923, in Brownstown.

Kathryn attended the local Lutheran grade school at St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church through the seventh grade and graduated from Brownstown High School in 1941.

She worked at the local JayC Store before she was employed at Noblitt-Sparks Industries in Seymour, where she met her future husband in the fall of 1945 following the end of World War II.

Kathryn married Loren W. Noblitt in January 1949. Together the couple moved to several states, including New Mexico, Illinois and California before returning to Brownstown to retire in 1981. In retirement, they also enjoyed a winter home in Florida.

A lifelong Lutheran, Kathryn was a member of St. Peter's in Brownstown. During the years she lived in Connecticut, she attended St. Peter Lutheran Church in Norwalk.

Kathryn was a beloved wife, mother and grandmother. She and Loren had three daughters together and four grandchildren. She loved spending time with her family, and she was a devoted homemaker.

She enjoyed cooking and baking as well as gardening, sewing and embroidery. She won many awards for her pecan pies, her vegetables and her embroidered pillowcases and tableclothes. Kathryn enjoyed the beauty in nature, including birds, flowers, mountains and traveling across the country to visit different landscapes, landmarks and national parks.

Kathryn was preceded in death by her husband, Loren W. Noblitt; her oldest daughter, Carolyn Joyce; her parents; her sister, Mary Kamman; and her brother, Joseph Kamman.

She is survived by her daughters, Sandra (Robert) McKinney and Kathleen (Thomas) Collins; her grandchildren, Mark, Lisa, Tyler and Karolyn; and her brother, William D. Kamman of Seymour. Memorials may be made to St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Brownstown, or to the donor's choice.

Pastor Ross O'Dell will conduct services at 1 p.m. Wednesday at Zabel Funeral Home, Brownstown. Calling is from 11 a.m. until time of service at the funeral home. Burial will follow at Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.
